A Message from the Pastor

The Importance of Walking

A number of biblical luminaries, Enoch included, are described as people who walked with God, Noah was an early Believer who walked with God (Genesis6:9). Abraham was called the friend of God (James2:23). In Psalms and Proverbs we read promises of blessing (Psalm84:11) and sure footing (Proverbs10:9) directed at those who walk uprightly. Jacob, after spending a night wrestling with an angle, was given a new name (Israel) and a new limp (Genesis32:25,28,31). He was able to walk afterward but with a noticeable catch in his step. From then on, as Jacob moved through life, the way he walked called attention to his time of wrestling with God. Moses, the greatest leader and lawgiver of the Jews, spent a lifetime learning what it takes to get from point A to point B. He walked with God through Egypt’s halls of power, then across obscure hills, where he tended sheep for forty years, and then across the Sinai wilderness for another forty years as he led the Hebrews from slavery to freedom. Moses completed eighty years of hard walking after he was deposed as prime minister of Egypt. He was familiar with fame and power as well as anonymity. Moses walked with God for decades and was known as the meekest man on earth (Numbers12:3). Noah walked with God and built an ark that rescued the human population and the animal kingdom from a worldwide flood. At God’s direction, Abraham walked out of his home country and, with his wife, gave birth to the new nation that God was creating. Moses, after herding sheep and then returning to Egypt, freed approximately two million Jews from bondage. And as we noted already, Enoch walked with God for three hundred years and disappeared into heaven without a trace. Ark builder, father of a nation, the meekest man on earth, faithful companion of God, and a tenacious wrestler who walked away from a bout with God bearing a limp. They knew what it meant to walk with God, and the things they learned as they walked are the same things you and I need in our lives. If we hope to find a life that rises above doubt and confusion, that is enriched by order and clear direction, and that enjoys the presence, blessing and power of God, we need to first learn how to walk with God.

Scripture for the Week

Revelation 21:1-8 New International Version (NIV)

A New Heaven and a New Earth

21 Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,” for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. 2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 ‘He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’ or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” 5 He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.” 6 He said to me: “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life. 7 Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children. 8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.”
