A Message from the Pastor

The Christian’s Courageous Preparation

“Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth” all active, sensible work is symbolized by a girded waist “having put on the breastplate of righteousness.” In other words, have no inordinate fear, no questionable affinities, no meddling with the charms of this world. Righteousness means “rightness” in our relationship to other people and their best interests. “And having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace.” What kind of shoes do we wear? Can it be said of us, “As soon as I heard your step I felt better?” Or do they say, “When your step came into my life all went wrong; when the step of your friendship began I started to lose out with God”? Put on the armor of God, keep your heart right with God, and wherever you go, you will shed the preparation of the gospel of peace. Wherever the saint goes there is the shedding of the benediction of the blessing of God, or there is the coming of the conviction of the faith.” Faith is unbreakable confidence in the personality of God, not in His power.

Sincerely,
Dr. Rev. C. L. Phelps, Pastor

Scripture for the Week

1 Timothy 4:12-16 New International Version (NIV)

For The Youth

12Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity. 13Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. 14Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on you. 15Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. 16Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.
